

Weddings

A Supplement
to the Jewish Exponent
January 24, 2008

Something New

Compiled by Barbara Bookbinder
Written by Greg Salisbury

Book Report

You don't often see books in Something New. But then, you don't often see books as downright useful as Crazy About Jewelry, by Susan Eisen (Full Circle). Eisen, an accredited senior appraiser of the Accredited Gemologist Association, explains how to buy and sell jewelry; how to teach your significant other how to shop for you; and what to do with Bubbe's wedding ring, among other topics.

